Assembly Amendment 1 addresses that portion of Assembly Bill 51 which provides that if a court takes possession of a person's license because the person has been convicted of an offense for which revocation of the person's operating privilege is mandatory or if a court otherwise suspends or revokes a person's operating privilege, the court must destroy the license. Assembly Amendment 1 specifies that if a court takes a person's license under these circumstances, the court must destroy the license by shredding it.
